Foreword

Our lives depend largely upon our structural development during our twelve years in school.

The past has revealed untold pleasures, that were unfolded to us; the present, presents untold joys that are being experienced; THE FUTURE REMAINS YET A CHALLENGE. The memories of our glorious school years, will be cherished by the Seniors of 1956 and 1957. These few pages aren't enough to express our thoughts and our sentiments for "Dear ole Dunbar."

As the years pass we will be able to turn back the pages of our annual and recapture the joys of our school years.

The Editor

Days To Be Remembered

In Memoriam

MR. LOUIS V. JONES

Because of his unselfish and untiring devotion to the cause of education in North Carolina and Rowan County this page is reverently dedicated to the memory of Mr. Louis V. Jones, deceased Supervisor of Rowan County Schools.

Rowan has been greatly improved by having had the opportunity of associating with him and profiting by his wise counsel and leadership.

Dedication

We, the members of the class of nineteen hundred fifty-seven do hereby dedicate "THE BAR" to an ideal faculty member, advisor and friend, Miss Ruth E. Holmes, who, for four years, has worked with and for this class. Her inspiration as our first homeroom teacher, her cheerful disposition, and her ability to correlate education and life as our business instructor, make her worthy of far more than this dedication. The class dedicates this book as a token of appreciation for Miss Holmes' efforts and her interests in school activities and high school students.

OUR SCHOOL SONG

Alma Mater dear we praise thee
 Dear Ole white and blue,
 Hearty voices now uniting
 Pledge devotion true.

Eb D C dim. Bb 7

Dear ole Dunbar . . . Dear ole Dunbar
 Louder still we sing,
 Swell the song and lift the cry
 Hail to Dunbar High.

High school days are swiftly passing
 Soon we'll say good-bye,
 Even then we'll pledge our love for
 Dear ole Dunbar High.

Congratulation

We, the graduating class of 1957, wish to extend our congratulation to some of our parents who have had large families to graduate from Dunbar. In many cases there are parents who have seen their grand-children graduate.

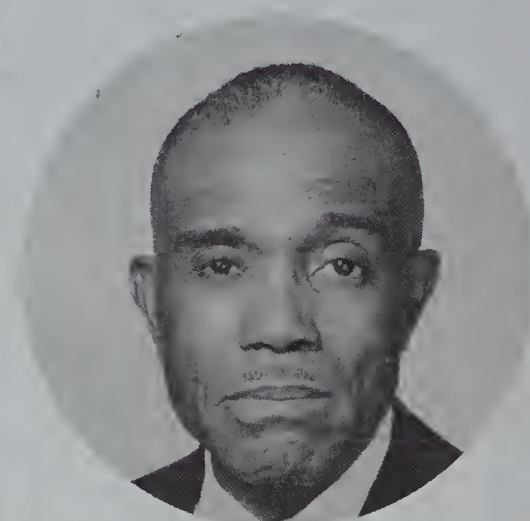

This interest, sacrifice and encouragement deserves honor and praise. We salute you, dear parent!

Our Class History

(All That's Past)

In the fall of 1953, we entered the portals of Dunbar High School. Seventy-two wide-eyed frightened students from the Dunbar elementary department and the Granite Quarry School, had begun the journey that so many other students had traveled before us. After a week of adjustment, we were well on our way toward becoming the young men and women we are today. We were divided into two divisions, of which Maggie Robinson and Betty Shuford were elected presidents. Our scholastic progress was excellent, and many of us were represented on the honor roll. We also joined various activities such as, The Coral, Dramatics Club, Basketball, N.H.A., Student Council, and other extra curricular activities. Leroy Peay was elected Treasurer of the Student Council, and we were also represented on the basketball team. Nellie Austin was our attendant in the Miss Dunbar Contest. By the end of the year we gave a sigh of relief for we had really worked hard.

As Sophomores we were more determined than the year before. Elizabeth Mackey and Ralph Keaton were elected presidents of the two sections.

Imagine having William Barbour, Ray Ferrens, Tommy Ferrens and Richard Gaston on the basketball team; they were excellent players, and Miss Holmes organized a cheering squad on which Olean Massey, Wilbert Robertson, Irene Williams and Leroy Peay were a running success.

Returning for our Junior year, we put together all we had learned from our past experiences, and were ready for another year of hard work under our presidents, Elizabeth Mackey and Thomas Jeter. We were no longer "green", but worthy of the title "Juniors", and Olivia White was elected Vice President of the Student Council, with Maggie Robinson and LaVerne Brannon as representatives. The Council did a magnificent job, and gave out handbooks as a guide, to each member of the student body. These books were greatly appreciated. William Barbour, Olivia White, LaVerne Brannon, Kathleen Charleston and Richard Gaston were represented on the basketball team. Olean Massey and Wilbert Robertson were rearing to go on the cheering squad this year, and we had made such an improvement, that Miss Holmes then organized a pep squad, and the members from our class were Virginia Ford, Jennie Davis, Olean Massey, Varnetia Aiken, DeElla Davis, Nella Ree Austin and Maggie Robinson. The Homecoming was an overwhelming success, and we were all thrilled to see The Dunbar Tigers defeat Dunbar from Lexington.

We were then looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom, and the advisors, Mrs. Vails and Miss Taylor, with the assistance from Miss Holmes helped us with new ideas for this glorious affair. We were very excited as we worked hard to make it a success, and it was. Our theme was Moonlight and Roses, and we danced in an Oriental Garden under the Moonlight. Our evening was truly an enchanting one.

Florine Corpening was crowned Miss N.H.A. and after the ceremony, she was given a reception in the Home Economics Department, and Mrs. Shelton, the Home Economics Advisor, served refreshments to the guests.

The Commercial Club journeyed from Dunbar to North Carolina State in the early spring of 1956. We had participants in the typing contest, and by no means were we left behind. We won second place in the contest. While this great event was taking place, the rest of the students toured the city, and had a wonderful time. We visited the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Plant to see how cigarettes were made, and to say nothing about the machines. We then visited the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, and we were surprised to know that the whole company was fully operated by Negroes, and we were also amazed to find out what we didn't know before. We cannot tell all the things we saw, but I can say we fully enjoyed ourselves. After a brief pause and relaxation, we journeyed to Chapel Hill to the Planetarium, and there we were inspired by the heavenly bodies, and what happens during Easter and Christmas. To sum it all up, we felt that no trip could have been better.

With deepest enthusiasm, we returned in the fall of 1956 to take up the responsibility of being a Senior. Realizing that this was our final year here at Dear Ole Dunbar to prepare ourselves for leadership in the world, we resolved to make it our most profitable year. Our class officers for '56 and '57 are President Clarence Hailey, Vice President LeRoy Peay, Secretary Nella Ree Austin, Assistant Secretary Jennie Davis, Corresponding Secretary Irene Williams, and Treasurer William Barbour. Olivia White is President for the Student Council, with James Ford as representative. We elected our Bar Staff in the early autumn of '56; LeRoy Peay was elected Editor and Maggie Robinson, Assistant Editor.

We participated in the Livingstone College first Senior Day on October 27th, 1956, along with other Seniors from other schools. Their kind hospitality was appreciated by all of us. We were also invited to Senior Day at A and T College, which was very enjoyable.

We have spent many happy and pleasant days beneath the blue and white, and as we leave our happiness is also sorrow, but we realize as Shakespeare has said, "All the World's a stage, and each must play a part. Each has his entrances and his exits." So it is that we have entered the doors of DUNBAR, ascended its stage and now we are about to make our exit, only to enter into the stage of realities.

The Class Historian

Our Class Poem

As we walked along the hallway,
Which rang with shouts and cheers,
We know we will be leaving soon
The joys of so many short years.

As we talked to friends so loving
A tear comes to our eyes,
For soon we would part
Soon we would say good-bye.

Then down to the task of study
Good grades we must achieve,
Our diplomas we will hold proudly,
No one will we deceive.

Ah! Now the task is over,
A nightmare of scores, then thrills
Our exam we took with eagerness
And passed with all our skills.

As we walked into the auditorium
With music sweet and clear,
We breathed a prayer to God
For He was standing near.

Upon the still firm earth,
We tread with heads held high
Into the future dark and drear
We'll go without a sigh.

he who conquers himself is mighty."

Our Class Song

Tune: Beautiful Dreamer

Parting from Dunbar is hard to do
Because it's from something that you hold so true.
To dear ole Dunbar, we hate to say
A good-bye to you, we'll be on our way.

Chorus:

So dear ole Dunbar, we'll think of you
As one of greatness all the day through
We'll honor, love and cherish thee,
As down life's rugged path we'll flee.

We've come through trial with vim and zest.
Through days of hardship, we have done our best.
Now comes the end and we must leave you
Heartbreaks to go, but we have more work to do.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior class of Dunbar High School, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby declare this our last will and testament. The items are to be bequeathed as stated by our individual members. It is our desire that our farewell gifts be used profitably to the glory of the departed donors, the class of 1957.

ARTICLE I

To the Superintendent and Board of Education, we leave our grateful appreciation for providing a system of education which will help us make a good, as well as a worth while life.

ARTICLE II

To our principal, Mr. Robert E. Dalton, we leave, in partial payment for all he has done for us during the past years, our hearty gratitude and sincere appreciation.

ARTICLE III

To our faculty and particularly our homeroom teacher, we leave our fond affection and enduring friendship for helping us struggle through our last year in school.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we leave our dignity with the hope that they will grasp the meaning thereof and not let us down.

ARTICLE V

I, Varnetia Aiken, will my ability to maintain a good grade in Social Science to Barbara Archie.

I, Nella Ree Austin, will my neatness to Joan Boyd.

I, William Barbour, will my basketball prowess to Arthur Wilder.

I, LaVerne Brannon, will my position on the basketball team to Ethel Jones.

I, Claudine Bush, will my ability to make friends to Ellie Jackson.

I, Kathleen Charleston, bequeath my seat in typing to Betty Jo Eller.
